

1. Sandra Good – quilter, W
2. Michiko Nakamura – ceramic artist
3. Kathryn McHolm – artist
4. Susan Lago – ceramic artist
4. Susan McDonald – potter
5. Susan MacDonald – wearable art
6. Jeanette Bartosik – glass artist & designer
7. Chris Montgomery – stained glass art & jewellery design
8. Brenda Sullivan – potter
9. Susan Dods – bead art
10. Carmel Bouzanne – artist A.O.C.A.
11. Peggy Mersereau – textile artist
12. Christine Benson-Woods – printmaker/instructor, W
12. Les Robling – painter, W
12. Patricia Schevers Papp – painter, W
13. Kipp and Holly Roane – blacksmith & mixed media artist
14. Jane Weeks – eco artisan
15. Maya Makarewicz – dried floral design, W
16. Vikki Forsyth – potter
16. Robert Laycock – photographs
17. Graeme Coxon – photographer
18. Avril Bull-Jones – printmaker/painter
18. Carol Maranda – jewellery maker
19. Jana Ewart – oil painter
20. John Gulka – fine furniture
21. Joanne Nimmo Bulsara – carver & illustrator
22. Ross Dreveny – artist, W
23. Mike Smith – acrylic & oil painter, W
24. Barbara Buntin – mixed media artist, W
25. Laurie Siblock – fibre artist
26. Stephen Gillberry – artist
27. Kitty Munro – stained glass artist
28. Sally McKay-LePage – fused glass
29. Monika Becker Devine – jewellery & sculpture
30. Anja Hertle – mosaic artist
31. Mary Lou Burnside – glass artist
31. Yvonne Barker – jewellery
32. Nancy Gagné – soapmaker
33. Barry King – drawings & watercolours, W, WCA
34. Rick Beaver and Prairie Day – art & nature, W

Northumberland Hills Studio Tour

Free Admission

Follow the blue studio tour signs

Saturday & Sunday
September 10 & 11, 2011
10 am to 5 pm

Through the rolling countryside and heritage towns and villages of the Northumberland Hills, just 90 km east of Toronto, 41 uniquely talented artists invite you to discover their work and the places where they live and create.

For brochures or information call
905.342.2631 905.342.3344
northumberlandstudiotour.com

Visit the Artists of Northumberland

northumberlandstudiotour.com

In rural areas, directions provided from the nearest county road.
In Cobourg and Port Hope, please refer to the town maps.

- Sandra Good – quilter, W
Sandra's interest in colours and fabrics determines her approach to the creation of machine-quilted lap and crib quilts, placemats, table runners, wall hangings and children's quilted sweaters. From Cty. Rd. 28 go west on 5th Line and north on Knoxville Rd. to #5150.
(905) 885-8777
- Michiko Nakamura – ceramic artist
Michiko's tableware and ornamental pieces integrate Japanese aesthetics and design through a holistic, collaborative approach between herself, the clay and her own glazes. From Sandra Good's continue on Knoxville Rd. to #6360 at the top of the hill.
(905) 885-0193 claymichiko.wordpress.com
- Kathryn McHolm – artist
My art reflects my day to day life. I draw, watercolour and make paper in the midst of my garden habitat. Be sure to leave time to tour the garden. 4749 Cty. Rd. 2 in Welcome.
(905) 753-2196 www.nexicom.net/~kathrynsrgarden
- Susan Lago, Blue Cheese Pottery – ceramic artist
Susan has studied hand building, throwing and tile making in Canada and the U.S. She produces handmade functional pottery, tiles and sculptural pieces that make original and unique gifts. 27 Clifton Rd. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-6965 www.bluecheesepottery.com
- Susan McDonald, Practically Potty Studio – potter
Susan's artistic background influences her fusion of three-dimensional form with techniques that reflect her fascination with surface, form and space creating bold, functional art for everyday use. Showing with Blue Cheese Pottery, see above.
(905) 753-2731 susanmcdonaldpottery.com
- Susan MacDonald – wearable art
Susan is showing new hats and jackets in pieced and embellished washed wools, mohair, tweeds, silks and vintage fabrics and a selection of smaller pieces: laptop cases, bowties and other accessories. 64 Sherbourne St. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-2235 www.wearableart.net
- Jeanette Bartosik – glass artist & designer
With ancient glass-working techniques (lampwork) and newly-acquired skills from an internationally recognized artist, I create and design one-of-a-kind art glass jewellery that is elegant, timeless and feminine. 81 Bramley St. S. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-4120 www.jeanetteka.com
- Chris Montgomery – stained glass art & jewellery design
Artistic ability and technical expertise infuse Chris's innovative designs in glasswork and jewellery. Incorporating found objects and whimsical accents keeps her work fresh and exciting. 84 Dorset St. W. in Port Hope. Studio entrance from Pine St. at the end of 'pedestrian only' laneway, across from Brenda Sullivan's.
(905) 885-6186 www.theglasshopperstudio.com
- Brenda Sullivan, Dragon Clay – potter
I look to translate nature's designs into usable artworks. Art Deco tea pots, dragon mugs and every day items are presented in a funk-tional way to lighten your day; sculptures to inspire. Brenda's studio is at 81 ¼ Pine St. S. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-5384 dragonclayproductions.com
- Susan Dods – bead art
Susan's pieces are classical as well as asymmetric compositions of antique Asian beads, rare gemstones and antique glass beads mounted using traditional knotting with silk cord or twisted sterling wire. 243 Ridout St. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-9104 susandods.com/beads
- Carmel Bouzanne – artist A.O.C.A.
Carmel has been showing her art internationally for 28 years. Her work on canvas is a refreshing look at the interplay of paint, handmade paper and nature's offerings. 192 Walton St. in Port Hope.
(905) 885-9266 carmel.b@sympatico.ca
- Peggy Mersereau – textile artist
Beautiful, elegant scarves for men and women in silk, cotton and wool. Fresh colour combinations from new and reclaimed textiles. Funky vintage button bracelets and pins. 22 Barrett St. in Port Hope. From Ontario St. southbound, keep right at the fork for Barrett.
(905) 885-6224 pmersereau@cogeco.ca
- Christine Benson – printmaker/art instructor, W
My linocuts are able to express the child-like curiosity and energy I find in nature through the use of carefully carved lines, Japanese papers, collage and stitching. Co-founder of Journey Through the Arts, I am showing at my summer studio at the Old Mill in Port Hope. The Mill is located on the Ganaraska River at the northeast corner of Molson St. and Hope St. N. Watch for the short gravel drive.
(905) 885-0908 www.journeythroughthearts.com
- Les Robling – painter, W
Les captures the essence of landscapes with a discerning eye, strong colours and a hint of impressionism. Atmosphere, light and shade, bold strokes and dramatic effects characterize his work. Showing at the Old Mill in Port Hope, see above.
(905) 885-4141 lrobbling@bell.net
- Patricia Schevers Papp – painter, W
Influenced by the rhythms I see in nature, my compositions express my passion towards colour, depth and the natural world. Showing at the Old Mill in Port Hope, see above.
(905) 885-9275
- Kipp Roane, A Welding Shop – blacksmith & ironworker
Holly Currah-Roane – mixed media artist
Welding and building has been part of Kipp's life since he was a boy. Creating artistic ironwork is not just a career, it is his passion. For Holly, enjoying new experiences and the beauty of nature finds expression in her paintings and mixed media pieces. From Cty. Rd. 28, go east on Dale Rd. to McClelland Rd., turn north to the first farm on the left #3054.
(905) 885-4916 www.aweldingshop.ca
- Jane Weeks, Smallbones Studio – eco artisan
Broom maker, basket weaver, chair caner, candle and soap maker - rediscover traditional arts and crafts using nature's beneficence. Down the path and through the gate are the broomcorn and sally (basket willow) gardens. 5257 Plank Rd. in Gore's Landing. Follow Cty. Rd. 18 north into Gore's Landing. At the stop sign, continue straight to the first house past the general store.
(905) 342-3743 www.smallbones.ca
- Maya Makarewicz, Sheaves – dried floral design, W
With a fresh clean style and subtle touch, this is dried design and floral arranging that makes modern and elegant use of natural materials. 6009 Cty. Rd. 18 at the west end of Harwood. Watch for the covered bridge at the foot of our driveway.
(905) 342-2631 sheaves@aimet.ca
- Vikki Forsyth, The Old Manse Pottery – potter
I have been making pots and my own glazes for many years, producing high-fired stoneware for the table and home. My beautiful studio is open year round by chance or appointment. 492 North Bethesda Rd. at the corner with Cty. Rd. 18, 2km east of Harwood. Look for the turquoise roof.
(905) 342-3344 dapcat@gmail.com
- Robert Laycock – photographs
Rob's experience printing traditionally in the darkroom ensures a respect for the quality of his current digital printmaking: black and white prints from scanned silver negatives and current colour and monochrome digital conversions of a variety of subjects. Showing at The Old Manse Pottery, see above.
(705) 696-1356 braefarm.ca
- Graeme Coxon – photographer
Using digital tools and techniques to produce studies of plants and other subjects, Graeme's nature photography continues in the tradition of botanical illustration where scientific interest finds beauty and creates art. From Cty. Rd. 45 in Baltimore, go north on Cty. Rd. 15/Harwood Rd. for 6 km to Crossen Rd. and turn south to the stone house at #3685.
(905) 342-3270 botanic-arts.com
- Avril Bull-Jones – printmaker/painter
Using printmaking and painting techniques, my work reflects my response to the places and events that happen in my life. My country studio is also home to 'Av's Art and Adventure' - art camps/workshops for children and adults. From Cty. Rd. 45 in Baltimore, go north on Cty. Rd. 15/Harwood Rd., turn east on Clapperton Rd. and north on Roebuck Rd. to #3367.
(905) 372-8575 www.avrilsart.ca
- Carol Maranda – jewellery maker
Wearable art created from glass, ceramics, pottery, beads and recycled materials. Fun and funky. Showing with Avril Bull-Jones, see above.
(905)372-3533 carolmaranda@hotmail.com
- Jana Ewart, Atelier des Pins – oil painter
Jana's vivid colours and expressive brushstrokes reflect her observations of life in Northumberland and Taos, New Mexico. From Cty. Rd. 45, go north on Hickerson Rd. then uphill on Kraumanis Rd. to #3592.
(905) 342-2872 janaewart.com
- John Gulka – fine furniture
John produces custom furniture in the Arts and Crafts and Shaker aesthetic using only solid woods and environmentally-friendly finishes. 5378 Cty. Rd. 45 just north of Baltimore.
(905) 372-4877 johngulkafurniture.ca
- Joanne Nimmo Bulsara – stone & wood carver/illustrator
After 20 years in blacksmithing as part of Anvil Artistry, Joanne returns to the tour as Raven's Eye Studio with drawings, paintings and carvings that reflect her attraction to nature and its creatures. From Cty. Rd. 45/Division St. in Cobourg, turn east on Densmore Rd. and continue 4km to 9281 Danforth Rd. E.
(905) 372-1506 ravenseyestudio@live.com
- Ross Dreveny – artist, W
Ross works in egg tempera on paper and in acrylic on canvas and gesso board. Exploring themes between reality and imagination, Ross's technique and temperament bring a quiet peacefulness to his work. 360 George St. in Cobourg. Studio open year round by chance or appointment.
(905) 377-8278 rossdreveny.com
- Mike Smith – acrylic & oil painter, W
Art director, creative director, now painter - moving out to the countryside inspired my contemporary atmospheric landscapes. Working in a variety of sizes, my paintings reveal the feeling and drama of rural living. 303 Ball St. in Cobourg. Ball is a one-way south from University Ave. Studio entrance from Burke St.
1 (289) 932-1104 www.mikesmith.ca
- Barbara Buntin – mixed-media artist W
Subtle textures, glowing colours, delicate Japanese papers and boldly expressive line drawings combine in the layers of Barbara's exploration of the unfolding of life. Barbara works in monotype and linocut prints, paintings and collage. 215 Bagot St. in Cobourg, first house south of King St.
(905) 372-8535 barbarabuntin@sympatico.ca
- Laurie Siblock – fibre artist
Working with natural fibres like silks, wools and cottons, Laurie colours, felts, stitches and shapes these materials into unique adornments for the body and home. 300 Division St. in Cobourg, at the corner of Chapel St.
(905) 372-3313 girlsiblock@sympatico.ca
- Stephen Gillberry – artist
Known for his colours and textures, Stephen paints in both abstract and impressionistic styles. He works in a variety of sizes ranging from very large canvases to small works on paper. 301 College St. in Cobourg, at the corner of Chapel St. Studio entrance through the carport on Chapel.
(905) 377-8277 www.gillberry.com
- Kitty Munro, The Glass Garden – stained glass artist
Stained glass in the foil and lead came techniques, executed in jewel tones or clear-textured glass. Hand-painted, kiln-fired glass and mosaics using recycled glass. Unique jewellery and one of a kind ornaments. Open year round. 125 Abbott Blvd. in Cobourg. Studio at the rear.
(905) 373-4822 glassgarden.ca
- Sally McKay-LePage, Posh-It Designs – fused glass
Enjoy a wide variety of kiln-fired fused glass objects including jewellery, tableware, decorative wall plaques and sculpture. Custom work is welcomed and limited only by the imagination. Open year round by chance or appointment. 139 East House Crescent in Cobourg.
(905) 377-0740 www.poshit.ca
- Monika Becker Devine – jewellery & sculpture
The aim of my artistic enterprise is to inspire empowerment through creative expression. I use natural motifs and patterns of growth in the structure and imagery of my jewellery and sculptural vessels. 570 King St. E. at the easternmost edge of Cobourg, just west of the bridge over the railway tracks. Parking and entrance at the back of the house.
(905) 372-7967 www.lifeforms-art.com
- Anja Hertle – mosaic artist
Anja's passion is creating intricate, three-dimensional pictures using recycled china, tile, stained glass, beads, buttons and the occasional fork. 10821 Cty. Rd. 2 in Grafton, west of Cty. Rd. 23/Lyle St. Watch for the driveway entrance on the south side just west of the Post Office.
(905) 349-1032 anjahertle.com
- Mary Lou Burnside, LakeRidge Studio – glass artist
My medium is glass: kiln-worked, mosaic and stained glass. I design and create functional and decorative pieces, jewellery and garden art. My studio is open by chance or appointment. 10945 Cty. Rd. 2 in Grafton, east of Cty. Rd. 23/Lyle St.
(905) 349-2227 lakeridgestudio@sympatico.ca
- Yvonne Barker, Bead by Bead – jewellery
Working with interesting beads and semi-precious stones, I enjoy creating unique and new designs for Victorian, Art Deco and modern styles of jewellery. Showing at LakeRidge Studio, see above.
(905) 372-2984 jonvon@eagle.ca
- Nancy Gagné, Northumberland Soapworks – soapmaker
An avid gardener, Nancy creates 100% natural cold-process soaps using plants from her gardens and only pure essential oils for scent, and herbs and clays for colour. 904 Cty. Rd. 25, 4km north of Hwy. 401. Watch for the red brick farmhouse and pond.
(905) 344-7030 www.northumberlandsoapworks.com
- Barry King, Gallery by the Grove – drawings & watercolours, W, WCA
From a new gallery in an old woodland meadow: pen and inks, soft-toned watercolours and richly-hued prints inspired by historic architecture, countryside and wildflowers. Studio open year round by chance or appointment. From Cty. Rd. 22 west of Castleton go north on Jakobi Rd. (flashing light) 4 km and west on Dunbar Rd. 2 km to #12162. From Cty. Rd. 29 at Oak Heights go south on Covert Hill Rd., continue on Clarkson to Dunbar.
(905) 344-7175
- Rick Beaver and Prairie Day – art & nature, W
Noted artist and biologist Rick Beaver returns to the tour with a show and sale of his work at the Alderville First Nation Black Oak Savanna Ecology Centre in conjunction with Prairie Day 2011. A celebration of the tallgrass prairie and savanna habitats of the Rice Lake Plains, Prairie Day will offer nature workshops, traditional teachings and family entertainment on Saturday. Rick will be on hand with his work, and the interpretive centre will be open, on Saturday and Sunday. Savanna Ecology Centre, 8467 Cty. Rd. 18 west of Alderville.
(905) 352-1184 aldervillesavanna.ca
(905) 352-3831 rickbeaver.com

W - Washroom available
WCA - Wheelchair accessible studio
Please Note: Certain artists accept credit cards, many artists only accept cash or cheque.

Front Cover Artwork: Mike Smith, Jana Ewart,
Barbara Buntin, Anja Hertle, Stephen Gillberry